

Remote Surveillance System

Wireless Life Sensor monitors temperature, light intensity and human movement. It transmits data to the server regularly. The server sends an emergency alert in case of abnormal condition to the family or care providers by e-mail.

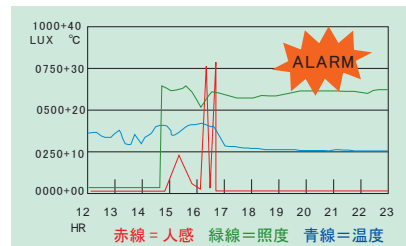

Life sensor
-temperature/light intensity/human movement-
RS-1200STX

Remote Surveillance System monitors the seniors living alone for their family or the senior care providers.

The warning condition can be set up on the server depending on the users needs. The server sends an emergency alert by e-mail in case that the data from Life sensor indicates a warning condition. Also, family or home care provider can access to the server form a computer or mobile phone to check the recent data and learn the status of users.

Network coupler
RS-1200CPF
RS-1200CPA
It is connected LAN cable.

Network camera (recommended products)
BB-HCM100
Made by Panasonic

Setting example

